Dialogue – Living in the city and in the countryside

Hello! I'm Peter Jackson.
My native country is the North America.
Our flat is in New York in the centre of the city. There are many things that are better than living in the country! There is so much more to do and see!

Hi! I'm Maria Falley. I come from Spain.
I live in a house in the countryside.
I think the city is more dangerous than the countryside.

Dialogue – Living in the city and in the countryside

That's true. People in the city aren't as open and friendly as people in the countryside. However I have some friends here. They aren't so helpful and reliable but on the other hand I spend much nice time with them.

I believe but for me it's more important my friend's character. On the contrary I'm sure that the country is more relaxed, too! People can enjoy their activity and have a rest here. It's necessary nowadays.

Dialogue – Living in the city and in the countryside

Well, the city is busier than the countryside. However, the countryside is much slower than the city. The countryside is so slow and boring! It's much more boring than the city. The city is more expensive than the country.

I think that's a good thing! At present people are in hurry, they don't have enough time for doing things slowly. People meet together, we hold festivals and keep traditions. We aren't bored.

Dialogue – Living in the city and in the countryside

The countryside is cleaner and less dangerous. But, the city is so much more exciting. It's faster, crazier and more fun than the countryside. Well, I'm young now. Maybe when I'm married and have children I'll move to the country.

Life in the countryside is also much healthier than in the city. When you know what is living in the countryside, you move here.
